Christoph Gnatz und Yvonne Unnold

Dear Guests,

We are Yvonne and Christoph, and we are delighted to welcome you to the Feines Alpengnästl. Being hosts means creating a place where you can truly arrive, take a deep breath, and consciously leave everyday life behind.

We love spending time outdoors – hiking, mountain biking, or skiing on the region's slopes in winter. Being close to nature is not just a way to relax for us, but a way of life. That is why we place great importance on treating our environment with care and sustainability.

Our Feines Alpengnästl is a very special place: directly behind the house, forested hills begin, accompanied by the gentle sound of the Kelchsau stream. Numerous hiking trails start right at the doorstep – often all it takes is opening the door and setting off. This sense of freedom is something we love to share with our guests.

You will be spending your holiday in one of the most beautiful regions of Tyrol – between the Wilder Kaiser mountains, the Hohe Salve, the SkiWelt Wilder Kaiser – Brixental, and the idyllic Kelchsau Valley. Guests especially appreciate the quiet location, the clear mountain air, and the direct access to nature.

In summer, well-marked hiking and cycling trails invite you to alpine walks and summit experiences. In winter, the region delights with perfectly groomed ski slopes, winter hiking paths, cross-country trails, as well as sledding and snowshoe tours. The Kelchsau Valley is considered a true insider tip for peace, nature, and authenticity.

Regional inns and alpine huts spoil guests with traditional Tyrolean specialties, while small chapels and natural spots convey local culture and heritage. We are happy to share personal tips to make your stay just as relaxing as we experience it here every day.

We look forward to welcoming you soon at the Feines Alpengnästl.

Kind regards,

Yvonne and Christoph
